

Workshop:
Europe and the Colonial Knowledge 1500-1850

18 – 6 – 2010

organized by Maria-Theresia Leuker / Jakob Vogel

Part I: Workshop (Anmeldung erbeten unter: phil-fak.zeus@uni-koeln.de)

Ort: Philosophikum, Philosophische Fakultät, Raum 038

13.45-14.00

Introduction

Maria-Theresia Leuker / Jakob Vogel

14.00-15.40

Knowledge Transfers

Bettina Noak (Berlin): Mit fremden Augen? Koloniales Wissen in Olfert Dappers Naukeurige beschrijvinge der Afrikaensche gewesten (1668)

Hanco Jürgens (Amsterdam): Enlightenment between Prussia and India: Faith, Knowledge and Company networks of German missionaries in Tamil Nadu, 1750-1810

15.40-16.10

coffee break

16.10-18.10

Actors and Representations

Anna-Teresa Grumbliès (Cologne): Colonial Interest in Indigenous Ecological Knowledge: Scientific Endeavors, Developments and Processes of Scientisation (16th - 18th century)

Kathrin Reinert (Cologne): Visual fantasies on Latin America: Casta painting, costumbrismo and 'type' photography

Pascal Schillings (Cologne): Resisting Representation? The Polar Regions and British Colonial Knowledge, 1770-1850

Part II: Public Keynote and Discussions

Ort: Hörsaal E, Hörsaalgebäude, Albertus-Magnus-Platz

18.30-20.00

Networks and Circulations

Siegfried Huigen (Stellenbosch/South Africa): François Valentyn's Construction of the Geography of the Cape of Good Hope (1726)

Kapil Raj (Paris): On 'Colonial Knowledge' as a Category in the History of Science: Reflections from a Circulatory Perspective